

PNW

Geographic Features of the Pacific Northwest PACIFIC MOUNTAIN SYSTEM

An outstanding example of the base-notched, serrated Shasta variant of the Gunther Barbed arrow point, made of transparent obsidian, found in Modoc County of northern California, in the 1960's by Pat Welch.

Pine forest in the Falls District of the Upper McCloud River area, in Siskiyou County, east of Mt. Shasta in northern California.

LTK